DIGEST

Present law provides requirements for recreational fisherman to keep intact certain body parts of saltwater recreational fish for purposes of validating length requirements and identifying species. Present law exempts "bait species".

Proposed law removes exemption for "bait species".

Proposed law provides an exception for saltwater finfish with no size limits and are not in excess of any daily possession limits which have been legally harvested.

Proposed law provides that king or Spanish mackerel may be used for the purposes of bait as long as the carcass is maintained intact with head and tail attached while such parts are in possession about a fishing vessel for purposes of determining legal size and possession limits. Further provides that such carcasses may only be discarded when no longer utilizing parts for bait.

Effective August 1, 2012.
